LEAGUE ENTRY FORMS CAN BE FOUND ON THE YBL WEBSITE

Junior YBL U13, U15 & U17

League sizes are dependant on number of entries.
U13s | Being 12 years old or below on 1 September 2020
U15s | Being 14 years old or below on 1 September 2020
U17s | Being 16 years old or below on 1 September 2020

Junior YBL Leagues provide coaches and player the opportunity to play in development leagues. These leagues are also used to develop new YBL officials. Teams would play home and away fixtures within a regional area, with teams being development players, new or returning teams welcome. Primis Leagues are invitational/or entry agreed by the Board of Directors. Primis and Zonal Development Leagues will have separate YBL Championship pathways at the end of the season.

Mini-YBL Central Venue

Under 9 (EST TWO GROUPS)

Proposed groups of 4 or 5 teams.
Being 8 years old or below on 1 September 2020

Under 11 (EST FOUR GROUPS)

Proposed groups of 4 or 5 teams.
Being 10 years old or below on 1 September 2020

The YBL Mini Leagues were born to meet the increasing demand for basketball for our younger player. It allows coaches to develop their players and introduces them into structured games.

Matches will be played at various central venues across the YBL on either a Saturday or a Sunday.

These leagues will be 4on4 playing two halves. Each game 10 minutes in total. Averaging five games per CVL; with four or five CVLs being run throughout the season, culminating in the YBL Championships Finals.

Senior YBL* Men & Women's Leagues

Men2 and Women2 are the transitional or starting point for new and developing teams. See YBL League Rules 2020 for eligibility of players.

Men1 and Women1 will be for teams continuing their YBL journey who have participated for at least three seasons. YBL Championships would take teams from a play-off system culminating in the YBL Championship Finals.

Promotion and relegation would take place at the end of the season between 1 and 2 leagues.

The Wheelchair Development League (WDL) is a development league designed for all wheelchair users and open to all ages and abilities. Proposed format of a preliminary round to determine rankings of teams to be placed into two groups. League starts from October 2020. YBL Championships would take teams from a play-off system culminating in the YBL Championship Finals.
